2008 WVIAC FOOTBALL PREVIEW

Four-time defending champion Shepherd is looking to make more history, but a deeper than usual field of contenders are looking to turn the Rams' unprecedented streak into history during the 2008 West Virginia Conference football race.

Monte Cater's Rams are the pick of league coaches as they received six of nine first place votes to hold down the top spot in the WVIAC pre-season poll. West Liberty State and Charleston, each of which narrowly missed the NCAA playoffs last season, each garnered a first place vote and placed second and third. Fourth place Glenville State was the recipient of the final first place vote.

Resurgent West Virginia State, Fairmont State, and Seton Hill make up the fifth through seventh positions. Seton Hill's Griffins are eligible for the league title for the first time after achieving full NCAA Division II membership this season. West Virginia Wesleyan and Concord round out the poll.

Shepherd (10-2, 7-1) is the first WVIAC squad to win 10 or more games in three consecutive seasons after the Rams reached the NCAA Division II quarterfinals last season. SU has won 30 of their past 31 league games, but must replace five first team All-WVIAC selections. All-American running back Dervon Wallace, the league's all-time leading scorer, and center Ryan Pope are among the departed seniors.

Quarterback Tyler Lazear completed nearly 59 percent of his passes last season and tossed 15 touchdown passes to only eight interceptions. Tight end Ryan Lavin is a force in the passing game and as a blocker for SU's traditionally strong rush attack. Running back Jimmy Sutch ramblled for 117 yards and three touchdowns during a fill-in role for an injured Wallace during last season's 41-34 win over Indiana (PA) in the NCAA playoffs.

Shepherd should field another strong defense, led by a front four that includes All-WVIAC picks Mike Speigelsberg and Mike Heatwole. Inside linebacker Lewis Corum, safety Layton Hersh, and cornerback Taros Harris return to patrol the back seven for the Rams.

West Liberty State (8-3, 6-2) finished 2007 as the Northeast Region's eighth ranked squad. The Hilltoppers hope to take the next step and reach the NCAA postseason with All-America candidates on each side of the ball.

Quarterback Zach Amedro established a school record by throwing for a WVIAC-best 3297 yards in his first season as a Topper after transferring from Appalachian State. Defensive back Darren Banks led Division II with 13 interceptions. The NFL Draft prospect owns 28 interceptions in his three-year WLSC career.

Running back Eddie Hills rushed for 1107 yards and was a first team All-WVIAC honoree, as was linebacker Nick Harding. Senior Johnny Bonar will lead a receiving corps that must replace D-II receiving leader Almonzo Banks. Kicker Billy Hager is another weapon for Roger Waialae's Toppers.

Charleston (8-3, 6-2) head coach Tony DeMeo welcomes back 18 starters from a squad that was in contention for an NCAA postseason spot until the season's final week in 2007. Slippery quarterback DeRante Hunter, who passed for 1170 yards and rushed for 896 more, is the triggerman for the Golden Eagles' triple gun option attack. Senior wide receiver Terrance Spencer owns most of the receiving records in school history.

A defense that limited four foes to nine or fewer points returns ten starters. The linebacker trio of LeDominique Williams, Joey Lindamood, and Antonio Smith is one of the finest in the Northeast Region. Defensive lineman T.L. Asbury ranked among the WVIAC leaders last season with 21 tackles for loss. Cornerback David Pickett tied for the team lead with four interceptions.

Glenville State (6-5, 5-3) should field an explosive offense behind the 1-2 punch of running back Jerry Seymour and quarterback James McCants. Seymour scooted for a school record 1714 yards after transferring from Central Michigan. McCants completed 101 of 171 passes for 1400 yards after assuming the starter's role midway through the season for Alan Fiddler's Pioneers. Wide receiver Brian Miles grabbed a team-high 44 receptions.

A defense that allowed just under 29 points per game helped knock GSC from contention in 2007. Linebackers Terrell Parker and Ryan Jannak were the team's top two tacklers last season. Defensive back A.D. Hale tied for the team lead with four interceptions. Louisville transfer linebacker Willie Williams will bring athleticism to the Pioneer stop squad.

West Virginia State (7-3, 5-3) enjoyed the program's first winning season since 1992 as head coach Earl Monroe continued his resurrection work in Institute. Junior Kevin O'Brien has played a key role in the Jackets' turnaround as the second team All-WVIAC pick threw for 2245 yards in 2007. Running back Brian Mitchell rambled for 985 yards and added balance to the State attack.

Linebackers Andrew Eggleton and Mark Stolle form the heart of State's 4-3 defense. Senior William Jackson paces the front four.

Fairmont State (6-5, 3-5) won their last four games to record the Falcons' first overall winning record in six seasons. Second-year head coach Mike Lopez must replace seven starters from the WVIAC's top scoring defensive unit to sustain success.

Sophomore running back Doug Brazill burst onto the WVIAC scene with 1137 rush yards in 2007. Speedy Vick Bradford took control of the Falcon offense at quarterback during the late season burst and rushed for nearly five yards per carry.

Linebackers M.J. Twyman and Nate Black are among the top returnees for the FSU defense. Defensive back Matt Vujaklyia has been a three-year contributor in the secondary and is one of the league's top kick-blocking specialists.

Seton Hill (3-7, 3-5) is a candidate for a big leap forward as new head coach Joel Dolinski has 21 of 22 returning position starters. The Griffins have their first full class of seniors as the program enters its fourth season.

The Griffins could provide plenty of offensive fireworks. Quarterback Matt Dowdell, running back Antwarn Jones, and wide receivers Derek Thompson and Sammy Tranks are among the league's most talented skill position standouts. Jones sprinted for a school-record 1276 rush yards to earn first team All-WVIAC honors in 2007.

SHU looks to firm up a defense that saw opponents score 41 or more points on five occasions. Linebackers Mark Hartz and Rob Ellis seek to slow down offenses for the Griffins in 2008.

West Virginia Wesleyan (3-8, 1-7) looks to return to contention behind veteran head coach Bill Struble. Harry Lorusso, a two-year starter at quarterback, leads the Bobcat offense.

Defensive back Tyler Kraus, a second team All-WVIAC pick, topped WVWC with 103 tackles and three interceptions in 2007.

Concord and head coach Greg Quick (1-10, 0-8) welcomes back only four starters on each side of the ball. Defensive linemen Dan Stone, Thomas Hearons, and Aaron Lowe look to pair with linebackers Rusty Coeburn, Joe Thomas, and Doug Heath for a solid front wall.

Sophomore quarterback Thomas Frazier threw for 1509 yards as a rookie, while wide receiver Nathan Tanner led all WVIAC freshmen with 39 catches in 2007.

Did You Know?

---Only two successful field goals were made during the 1959 grid season. Bluefield State's Jim Scott boot-ed the season's longest three-pointer from a mere 12 yards out! Unbelievably, 1959 was the decade's busiest year for kickers. WVIAC booters only made six field goals during the entire decade in those days before the advent of soccer style kickers.

THE NORTHEAST REGION

The West Virginia Conference will compete within the Northeast Region during the 2008 season. The NCAA realigned the regional structure earlier this year to add the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Conference to the region.

The Northeast Region contains the WVIAC, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, the Northeast-10 Conference, and the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Six playoff spots will be allotted from all four regions across the country (Northeast, Southeast, Central, and West) for a total of 24 bids into the NCAA Division II Football championship.

2004 introduced "earned access" into the Division II football lexicon. Earned access assures any league with a team in the final regional top eight of a playoff spot. The highest ranked squad in a conference receives earned access regardless of conference standing.

The regional rankings are compiled by the NCAA Division II Football Committee with assistance from the Northeast Region Advisory Committee. Each conference within the region has two members of the RAC.

California (PA) was last season's regional champion as the Huskies took victories over Southern Connecticut and Shepherd. WVIAC champion Shepherd earned the second seed and downed Indiana (PA) 41-34 before dropping a 58-38 decision to Cal in the regional finals. The Rams were the lone WVIAC squad in the 2007 Northeast Regional playoffs. #8 West Liberty State and #9 Charleston finished the season in the regional rankings and narrowly missed the postseason.

PRESIDENT'S & COMMISSIONER'S CUPS

The West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference annually awards the President's and Commissioner's Cups to recognize all-around athletic excellence among its member schools. West Virginia Wesleyan swept both awards during the 2007-08 academic year. The Bobcats claimed league titles in women's cross country, women's soccer, men's soccer, women's track and field, men's tennis, and softball.

The President's Cup is awarded to the school that has the highest average score for sports sponsored within the WVIAC. Points are awarded based on finishes in the regular season of each sport. Scoring of WVIAC sports is a reflection of the number of teams participating for that championship.

The Commissioner's Cup is awarded to the institution with the highest cumulative score as determined by a scoring method used by the league. Points are awarded based on the school's finish after completion of each of the sports sponsored by the WVIAC.

Did You Know?

---The WVIAC was the only NCAA Division II league to place a team in the national football quarterfinals, the men's basketball Elite Eight, and the D-II Baseball World Series during the 1998-99 academic year.
 ---Three current Division I institutions are former league members. West Virginia and Marshall were charter members, while Morehead State was a member from 1929 to 1932. The Eagles were the last non-West Virginia school to be a league member until the admission of Pitt Johnstown and Seton Hill in 2006. The Mountaineers departed in 1927 and the Thundering Herd exited in 1949.

The WVIAC

I chose
Division II

Founded in 1924, the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) rates as one of the oldest leagues at the small-college level. The 16-member conference currently boasts the largest membership of any NCAA Division II league.

The current membership includes Alderson- Broadus College, Bluefield State College, University of Charleston, Concord University, Davis & Elkins College, Fairmont State University, Glenville State College, Ohio Valley University, Salem International University, Shepherd University, West Liberty State College, West Virginia State University, West Virginia Wesleyan College and Wheeling Jesuit University. The University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown and Seton Hill University joined the WVIAC for the 2006-07 season. Pitt Johnstown and Seton Hill are the WVIAC's first out-of-state members since 1932.

The WVIAC moved into the NCAA Division II ranks in 1994 after a long affiliation with the NAIA. The conference was the only one in Division II to place a team in the national quarterfinals in men's basketball, football and baseball during the 1998-99 academic year. In 2002 the WVIAC, along with two other conferences, became the first league to earn four bids to the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship.

WVIAC student-athletes have been celebrating championships since 1924. Above is Fairmont State and legendary coach Joe Retton enjoying their 1975 men's basketball title

Commissioner Barry Blizzard, who has held the post since 1987, led the move into the NCAA. Blizzard, a native of Bramwell, West Virginia, previously served as the athletics director at Bluefield State. The long-time conference chief has served in a variety of national leadership positions, including a stint as president of the Division II Conference Commissioners' Association. He is currently the chairman of the NCAA Division II Nominating Committee.

Alumni of conference members include West Virginia State's Earl Lloyd (the first African-American to play in the National Basketball Association), Salem International's Cecil Underwood (two-term West Virginia governor) and Wheeling Jesuit's John Beilein (current Michigan men's basketball coach).

The conference's basketball tournament is one of the longest-running events in collegiate hoops; the 71st annual event was held earlier this year at the Charleston Civic Center. Attendance at the WVIAC tournament ranks among the highest in Division II. The conference also boasts a 10-station radio network for the tournament.

Women's sports were incorporated into the WVIAC during the 1981-82 academic year as the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Association was absorbed. Currently, women's championships are offered in softball, golf, tennis, track, basketball, volleyball, cross country and soccer.

Men's championships are conducted in football, cross country, soccer, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis and track.

The league was recognized by the State Journal as one of "55 Great Things About West Virginia" in the magazine's April, 2007 edition. The WVIAC is headquartered in Princeton, W.Va.
